

LIFE LEADERSHIP Is For EVERYONE

April 27, 2018 ♦ Westminster Recreation Center ♦ Westminster, Colorado

AGENDA

8:00am Registration, Coffee, Networking

8:30am Welcome and Opening Remarks

9:00am *A No-Fault Conversation about Race: How we got here isn't necessarily where we need to go

Dr. Nita Mosby Tyler

The Equity Project

The sometimes-uncomfortable subject of race can cause us to retreat or advance in our understanding of one another. During this interactive, fireside-chat-style session, Nita will explore the advantage of understanding race to further develop our leadership expert power, steps to lead authentic and gracious conversations about race, and how-to's to promote a culture of inclusion using the lens of race as a guide. Participants will practice using several tools and learning circle opportunities for creating race/cultural responsiveness in their personal and professional lives.

noon Lunch and Networking

12:45pm *So You Want to Serve on a Board of Directors?

Mr. Jeremy P. Anderson

Coach · Author · Consultant

Are you interested in joining a board of directors but unsure of where to start and what to do? Jeremy will present ideas, tools and resources to help you explore WHY board service matters to you, understand WHAT you should be doing, and discover HOW you can be most effective. He will help clarify your legal duties, official responsibilities, and organization expectations, while sharing practical tips and tricks for engaging in a meaningful and impactful way. Whether you serve on a board now or have been unsure of how to take your first step, you will be prepared and inspired to be the best board member you can be!

2:45pm *Leadership and Laughter: Improv skills for leadership

Ms. Elizabeth Frazier (and friends)

Environment Leader · Actress · Comedienne · Coach

An improvisation performance will be followed by a presentation on "improv skills for leadership," and group improvisation games with audience participation. Prepare to experience the humorous side of leadership.

4:00pm End
