

ALTP Program Participants

The program is designed for middle and upper level professionals, from the public, private, for-profit and non-profit sectors, who work in the areas of health and environment, or whose work impacts health or the environment.

ALTP seeks program participants from local and state health departments, environmental agencies, community based organizations, boards of health, health care organizations, hospitals, and for-profit companies with impacts or interests in health or the environment who are committed to leading their organizations toward better health and environmental outcomes, such as energy, constructions and finance industries and more.
