Developing & Connecting Leaders

Since 1998

Build upon RIHEL's legacy.

Address contemporary challenges.

In 1998, RIHEL became the first public health leadership institute in the country bringing together health and environment professionals for advanced leadership training.

Today, our pioneering vision remains resolute: training professionals from public and private sectors together generates productive relationships and creative solutions.

Ensure leadership development is sustainable.

Ongoing leadership is essential for every community.

Ongoing learning is essential for every leader.

RIHEL advances the leadership skills of professionals creating and championing healthy communities.

Connect leaders. Spark growth.

Organizations throughout
Colorado, New Mexico, Wyoming
– and beyond –
look to RIHEL for leadership development.

Connecting leaders from public and private sectors
generates productive relationships and innovative solutions.

ALTP: Advanced Leadership Training Program

ALTP builds the capacity of individual participants and creates an interdisciplinary network of leaders dedicated to the health and environment of our region.

RIHEL's year-long flagship program is designed for mid-career public health and environmental health professionals.

Annually, ALTP curates some 45 participants from throughout the Rocky Mountain region and beyond through a competitive application process.

It's as much about self-growth as it is about leadership development.

This program helps you identify the leader you already are and gives you the skills & tools to act on that.

-2022 ALTP Class Graduate

Coaching Academy

Coaching Academy develops confident and capable coaches who support others to maximize their personal and professional potential.

A broad network of professionals, Coaching Academy provides a ten-month (110 hour) coach training experience that prepares participants with the skills and practices essential to providing an effective and valuable coaching experience.

Coaching Academy is a significant, worthwhile investment in personal and career development. Skills learned here will open new doors of opportunity. - 2021 Coaching Academy graduate

LIFE: Leadership Is For Everyone

Since 2004, this annual leadership development and networking event provides training to a diverse community of professionals.

Attracting professionals from public & environmental health, wellness & health care, and sustainability & natural resources, LIFE explores timely, socially relevant topics.

LIFE is very interactive with the attendees; great mix of people; learning different aspects of leadership.

- 2019 LIFE Attendee

Rendezvous & Reunion
